This application is a national stage entry of PCT/IB03/06166 filed on 12/15/2003.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 5-6, 8-9 and 13-15 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

For independent claim 5, the prior art of record, alone or in combination, fails to teach the following limitation in conjunction with the rest of the claimed limitations:

"at the next attempt to start up the product;

reading out the activation condition; and

(iii) in response to the activation condition, activating at least one preventing unit that is connected to the activating unit and at least partly de-activating the operation of the component and/or at least partly destroying the component, by means of the preventing unit;

characterized in that the at least partial de-activation of the operation of the component and/or the at least partial destruction of the component is carried out during the start-up of the product by

(j=1) preventing an internal oscillator from beginning to oscillate;

(j=2) preventing an oscillator for an external clock signal from beginning to oscillate;

(j=4) preventing the build-up of a high voltage; and

(j=7) switching on an increased current drain in the operating state or the quiescent state."

For independent claim 13, the prior art of record, alone or in combination, fails to teach the following limitation in conjunction with the rest of the claimed limitations:

“at the next attempt to start up the product;
reading out the activation condition; and
at least partly de-activating the operation of the electronic component and/or at least partly destroying the electronic component, by means of a preventing unit;
characterized in that the at least partial de-activation of the operation of the component and/or the at least partial destruction of the component is carried out during the start-up of the product by;
switching on an increased current drain;
blocking generation of high voltage;
ignoring an external clock signal; and stopping an internal clock signal. “

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
